

"What is this 'G.I.T. program about?' - "I haven't had a chance to pick up the application." - "The only time I can call it's after work and they are closed" - "I would love to donate, but I'm not sure when I can go."

New G.I.T. website information is emailed to all school district counselors and local business partners.

School informs students and parents of new G.I.T. website.

Student arrives from school excited to tell his mom about a program he wants her to sign him up for. Mom's already on it and has been learning all about G.I.T. Camps as she navigates through a user friendly site.
